

HOT JOBS NEWSLETTER

Do what you love. Do what is right.

Vice President, Controller 2151

The Vice President, Controller will be responsible for providing timely and accurate financial results and insight to assist executives, the Board of Directors and other business leaders, attracting, developing and leading a talented team of high-performing accounting professionals in a rapidly changing and fast-paced environment, maximizing cash inflows through leading an efficient billing and collections process with hospital partners, optimizing the handling of bank, credit, and deposit relationships and initiating appropriate strategies to optimize cash position, maintain a reliable cash flow projection process and reporting mechanism that includes a minimum cash threshold to meet operating needs, overseeing financial and accounting controls and processes to ensure timely financial reporting that adheres to GAAP and other compliance requirements, enhancing and/or developing, implementing and enforcing policies, procedures and financial systems of the organization to enhance the overall operation and effectiveness of the department and the organization, maximizing tax efficiency while maintaining tax compliance in federal, state, and local jurisdictions, delivering on rigorous and quantifiable business objectives, operating in a demanding, high volume environment which is based on both revenue growth requirements and effective cost controls, maintaining the ability to act as an accounting expert while employing overall financial and business judgment, serving as primary interface with professional services firms performing financial audits, tax compliance work, and various valuation procedures, participating in a wide variety of special projects and compiling a variety of special reports as needed.

Experience Level

BA/BS degree in Accounting or Finance, CPA certification is required and MBA preferred, 12+ years of progressive experience/responsibility in the accounting field, experience in public accounting, preferably with a "Big 4" accounting firm, 5+ years of experience in a position equivalent to a Controller or higher responsibilities, healthcare services experience is preferred

Senior Financial Reporting Accountant 2153

The Senior Financial Reporting Accountant will be responsible for preparing company filings required by the SEC, assisting with internal and external audit, participating in the quarterly and annual reporting process, identifying process and control improvement opportunities, reviewing and verifying accuracy of account balances, analyzing changes in account balances and making recommendations to correct errors, and completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

Bachelors degree in Accounting or related field, minimum of 4 years accounting experience

Accountant 2132

The Accountant will be responsible for assisting the Controller with the daily, monthly, and annual operations of the Accounting/ Finance Department including grant management, budget review, and analysis, performing the processing and recording of accounts payable transactions and ensuring that all invoices and staff reimbursements are paid accurately and in accordance with Finance policies and procedures, performing general accounts analysis and reconciliations, including bank statements, fixed assets, employer's benefit costs, accruals and prepaid expenses, assisting in the preparation of financial reports such as financial statements, budget performance, and interim grant financial reporting, and any other duties assigned.

Experience Level

Bachelor's degree in Accounting, minimum of 2 years of comparable work experience, familiarity with US GAAP

Senior Income Tax Accountant 2140

The Senior Income Tax Accountant will be responsible for assisting with the quarterly and annual global effective tax rate (ETR), preparing US income tax provision and reviewing income tax calculations for over 85 locations in accordance with ASC740, composing Effective Tax Rate Memos and leading ETR quarterly calls with global leadership teams, analyzing, recording and maintaining documentation for uncertain tax positions and valuation allowance in the preparation of financial statements, working closely with cross functional teams-Tax Department, Treasury, External Reporting, and FP&A, assisting with footnotes and disclosures on the forms 10-Q and 10-K, working with external and internal auditors, providing guidance to global ETR preparers, and completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

Big 4 public accounting experience, 3+ years tax provisions, ASC740, tax calculations experience, foreign/international tax exposure

Senior Accountant 2148

The Senior Accountant will be responsible for overseeing the daily operations and monthly closing aspects of the general accounting functions, preparing entries for the general ledger in compliance with established rules and principles of general accounting, completing account reconciliations on a timely basis, preparing financial statements and statistical reports as required, coordinating and preparing for financial audits as required, working with other functional areas including Property Management, Finance, and Operations to assure accurate and timely flow of information into financial statements, and completing any other duties as assigned.

Experience Level

Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience in Accounting, Finance, or related discipline, CPA preferred, 5 years of general accounting experience

International Tax Accountant 2147

The International Tax Accountant will be responsible for assisting in the preparation of foreign subsidiary quarterly and annual income tax provisions in accordance with statutory requirements and ASC 740, coordinating foreign income tax return preparation, providing information to the appropriate tax service providers for preparation, coordinating quarterly foreign income tax estimates and annual extension calculations with tax service providers, assisting with foreign subsidiary US taxable income calculations for GILTI purposes under tax reform, providing assistance with foreign tax audits, gathering support for all withholding taxes remitted, assisting with determining VAT/GST applicability with regards to contracts and other situations that arise, assisting with tax planning ideas in light of the international tax regimes established under tax reform, assisting with transfer pricing studies and creation of policies to support, performing research as needed to ensure compliance with all tax laws and financial reporting, completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

Bachelor degree in Accounting or similar relevant discipline required, CPA and/or advanced degree preferred, 5 years of relevant experience preferably with a large public accounting firm or large U.S. multinational corporation

Senior Accountant 2152

The Senior accountant will be responsible for assisting the Controller or Accounting Supervisor with daily, monthly, quarterly, and annual reporting, completing risk assessment and reporting, reviewing and monitoring of local accounting systems like inventory, accounts receivable, and accounts payable, reviewing and reporting accounts receivable, assisting Controller with special projects, business evaluation, training/guidance and system implementation as required, monitoring capital expenditures and capital projects, reviewing expense reports, assisting with preparation of business plans and business development assessment, assisting with credit insurance reporting, and completing any other assigned duties.

Senior Financial Analyst – 2028

The Senior Financial Analyst will be responsible for effectively partnering with North America Project Operations and its management teams to achieve common financial and operational goals, reviewing projects weekly and at month-ends to ensure proper application of costs and recognition of revenue, including completing revenue recognition processes in Oracle and reconciling their results, providing a monthly analysis of project actual vs. expected results, assisting in reviewing monthly progress balances (including unbilled) for reasonableness and recoverability, actively participating in quarterly project reviews with the operational teams, performing monthly analysis of utilization, over/under clearances, and manufacturing costs versus budget and/ or POR forecasts, completing account reconciliation and other month-end/quarter-end general accounting procedures, including preparing financial statement disclosure information as requested by Emerson Corporate, interacting effectively with and assist in coordinating the completion of external and internal audit visits, assisting Human Resources in ensuring new employee information is placed properly into the Oracle system, including properly linking employees to cost centers, ensuring that new employee information properly flows through the specified system, if applicable, ensuring that the annual costing rate updates are properly flowing through the specified systems, participating in other special projects as assigned, which includes but is not limited to accounting system implementations and departmental process improvements necessary to support our Perfect Execution initiatives.

Experience Level

BS or BA degree in Accounting or Finance, a CPA or MBA is preferred, 5 years experience in Accounting or Finance, specific experience relating to project accounting required.

Senior Accounting and Reporting Analyst 2134

The Senior Accounting and Reporting Analyst will be responsible for understanding and completing complex accounting transactions, supporting the global and/or regional consolidation and internal reporting for the company, supporting the production and reviewing of financial statements and analyses, following both US and regional GAAP, as appropriate, executing complex tasks and projects as assigned, taking them from start to completion with minimal oversight, performing analyses and develop recommendations in support of achieving business objectives, overseeing work of others, including global colleagues and external vendor partners, managing and/or assisting with internal and external audit requests, and completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

Bachelor's degree in Accounting or Finance, a Master's degree or CPA preferred, 5 years of relevant work experience

Senior Corporate FB&A Analyst 2149

The Senior Corporate FB&A Analyst will be responsible for monthly closing and reporting of corporate function's results, reporting results to executive team, analyzing and reconciling various general ledger accounts monthly, preparing corporate function's annual plan and quarterly forecasts at a cost center level, analyzing actual costs, budgets and results compared to the forecast/plan at a cost center level, providing accounting support for various strategic initiatives, assisting in global consolidation and preparation of the company's consolidated annual plan and forecast, implementing and maintaining analytical tools, completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

Bachelor's degree in Accounting or Finance, 5 years of relevant experience

Senior SEC Accountant 2086

The Senior SEC Accountant will be responsible for assisting with accounting research and implementing new accounting pronouncements, monitoring the development of emerging accounting and reporting rules, managing the evaluation process, reviewing and assisting with year-end financial statements, and completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

CPA preferred, 2-3 years of public accounting experience

Senior Accountant 2090

The Senior Accountant will be responsible for assisting in the preparation, analysis and review of monthly, quarterly, and annual reporting and financial statements, analyzing complex general ledger accounts detailing major items and significant variances for review at management meetings and for year-end audits, reconciling and monitoring complex balance sheet accounts on a monthly basis, coding and entering various accounting entries into the accounting system, ensuring through research and discussions with management that the proper accounting treatment is being applied, researching relevant GAAP, SEC, and FINRA reporting requirements, independently researching regulatory/reporting requirements, evaluating operating methods and procedures on a continual basis and making recommendations for improved efficiency, maintaining up-to-date written procedures for all assigned responsibilities in accordance with SOX 404, analyzing assigned subsidiary account activity and balances on the subsidiary financial statements, preparing assigned subsidiary stand-alone financial statements, and completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

Bachelors degree in Accounting required, completion or progress toward passing the CPA exam preferred, 3-4 years of accounting/financial reporting experience in a public company or 2-3 years of public accounting experience required

Manager Financial Accounting – Tax 2082

The candidate in this position will be responsible for having a solid understanding of financial accounting (US GAAP) specific to the job requirements, developing an understanding of PPG's current ETR process and implementing changes that will substantially improve the efficiency and accuracy in reporting estimated and actual income tax expense calculations, overseeing the development of restructuring plans, reviewing and critiquing the business units' plans and providing accounting guidance, performing PPG's SBU goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset valuations and reporting the results to the Director, Financial Reporting and the Corporate Controller, working closely with Treasury, Legal, Tax, and the business units to ensure the accuracy of all forecasts, holding quarterly meeting with CFO to review the effective tax rate forecast, overseeing and assisting in the preparation of the documentation for all Uncertain Tax Position issues, overseeing the development of deferred tax calculations associated with all business acquisitions, the results of which will be incorporated in the purchase accounting entries, supervising the Accounting Coordinator, income taxes, preparing the ETR for the parent company's consolidated federal tax preparer, preparing PPG Industries, Inc.'s reconciliation of the federal return to year-end tax provision calculation, reporting the impact of such in subsequent ETR calculations and record the adjusting entries, and completing any other assigned duties.

Experience Level

B.S. in Accounting or equivalent, CPA or equivalent, 6-10 years of public accounting experience, solid knowledge of accounting under US or IFRS accounting standards

Senior Accountant 2154

The Senior Accountant will be responsible for balancing sheet reconciliations, completing cash receipt application for checks, wires and ACH payments, processing monthly journal entries for multiple companies in the accounting system, reviewing daily bank statements and cash management entries, analyzing financial statements which includes month over month income statement variances, overseeing accruals, managing income statements and balance sheets across multiple companies, preparing monthly financial statements for Controller review and approval, overseeing fixed asset entries into the accounting system for multiple companies, researching and reconciling all discrepancies in reporting, following internal controls, preparing intercompany invoices across multiple business lines, ensuring an accurate and timely monthly and year-end close, ensuring timely reporting of all monthly financial information, ensuring the accurate and timely processing of positive-pay transactions, adhering to policies, procedures and instructions of Manager of Financial Reporting, being a leader in the organization, and completing all other duties as assigned.

Experience Level

Bachelor's degree in Accounting or business degree with a concentration in accounting, 3-5 years experience in public or corporate bookkeeping, accounting, or balance sheets

Senior Accountant 2150

The Senior Accountant will be responsible for providing leadership to the accounting operations and financial reporting function by helping to build, streamline, automate and continuously improve processes and controls, leading the month-end close process and completing reconciliations for accounts, preparing journal entries and approving journal entries prepared by other accountants, conducting US GAAP accounting analysis for new transactions or agreements, overseeing accounting software/technology duties such as assisting other end-users with trouble-shooting, first-line and point of contact, acting as the primary liason with 3rd party IT support, assisting with software upgrades, and any other duties assigned.